Pastoral Reflection

500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation

Dear Friends,

By now, I trust that you are well aware that this is the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. Martin Luther, a monk in Wittenberg, Germany, touched off a firestorm of reformation when he nailed his 95 Theses to the door of the Wittenberg Cathedral on October 31, 1517. Today, he would have posted a blog and likely gotten the same response. The time was right, and ripe, for reform in the church.

What was the driving force behind this radical reformation? There are many possible answers, but the one undeniable fact is the Word of God was made available to all people. Luther translated the Bible from Latin into German, making Scripture available to the common man and woman. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, God used the Word of God to reform and transform His people, and I believe the same is true still today.

Of course, Luther had his part to play, as did many others in the subsequent decades, the likes of John Calvin and John Knox, but really it was the Word of God at work in people's hearts that made the changes. In a sermon Luther preached in 1522, he reflected on his role in the Reformation, and he said this about the importance of Scripture. "In short, I will preach it, teach it, write it, but I will constrain no one by force, for faith must come freely without compulsion. Take myself as an example. I opposed indulgences and all the papists, but never with force. I simply taught, preached and wrote God's Word; otherwise I did nothing." (I have also heard he said, "And while I slept, or drank my little glass of Wittenberg beer")... the Word did everything...I did nothing; I let the Word do its work."

That was true in the 16th century and it is true still today. There is power in the Word of God, power that is available to you and me; it is the power to change lives; it is the of the Gospel sufficient for our salvation.

Curiously, throughout Church history, God does a radical work of reformation in His Church about every 500 years. Perhaps, God is doing a work of reformation in His Church today, in us at Tab, in you and in me. I pray so, and I trust that any work He does will be grounded in the truth and power of His Word.

Join me as we pray that God will reform His Church, beginning with me.

I look forward to being with you in worship.

DAVID G. BENNER

OPENING TO GOD

LECTIO DIVINA AND LIFE AS PRAYER

Wednesdays@Tab: Opening to God

Join us for a six-week discussion on what it means to live a life of prayer, based on the book, Opening to God, by David Benner.

Prayer is not merely something we do, prayer is what God does in us. It is not just communication, it is communion with God. Using the four movements of the prayer practice known as Lectio Divina, we will explore prayer as attending, pondering, responding and being. This path is one of a deep, spiritual, contemplative life, which leads to action and service for God.

The class begins Wednesday night, October 4, at 6:00p for a light meal, then discussion from 6:30p-8:00p.

Connie Hintz, Sally John and Dave Streit are the facilitators. Books will be made available prior to and at the first class, at no cost to the participants. Contact: Dave Streit, (317) 923-5458, ext. 170, dave.streit@tabpres.org

The event is free, but RSVPs are encouraged at spiritandplace.org.

We need donations of individually-wrapped candy, but even more importantly, we need members willing to hand out candy; dressing yourself and/or your car up in a costume is welcome, but not required! We also need volunteers to help with refreshments, hospitality, and various carnival games. We've had more than 200 people at each of the five previous "Trunk or Treat" nights, so we know this is a wonderful way to share some love and fellowship with our neighbors! Look for the volunteer sign-up sheet in McKee Hallway beginning October 1. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Wirt.
