Pastoral Reflection

There's A Lot Of Music Going On

Dear Friends,

As you read the Chimes you'll notice the theme of music emerge. Music has been a way to express our thoughts, emotions, but ultimately our devotion to God. King David, the greatest worshiper in the Bible, reminds us that as we sing and make a pleasant noise, God is moved and enjoys the creativity of His people. Tab is no stranger to music and has gained a reputation for hosting world-class concerts and workshops to train musicians. It is only fitting that four music events are taking place in September.

First, we begin with the Community Worship Service, September 2, in our Sanctuary. This year we are hosting Phillips Temple and merging praise bands from both churches to create a sound that honors our cultures and long-standing relationship. This is one of my favorite services because the music is top-notch and I cherish the conversations we share afterwards. Even though we might not see each other often, throughout the year, Phillips is like that old friend that you always smile at and are grateful to see again. We hope to have a strong showing from Tab as we worship together.

After the Community Worship Service, we will officially launch our Rhythms of the World Children's camp on Saturday, September 8. We did a soft launch in the summer to test and fine-tune this endeavor. The fall program will continue to explore music from different parts of the world and provide a music education that is lacking for some students. We are excited to see this program grow and expand so please keep it in your prayers.

Then we move towards the Sacred Music Symposium, September 12, 13 and 14. This year promises to be even better than before with world-class clinicians and record-breaking attendance. While most of us will not attend the symposium, I am always encouraged to see the number of worship leaders who are diligent in fine-tuning their craft. We, as a church, should be humbled that we can host such an event where both the current and future generation of worship leaders can mature their skills. We'll have two concerts during the symposium. The first is "Sing to the Lord A New Song" on Wednesday, September 12, at 7:00p followed by "Christ, Light of the World" on Friday, September 14, at 7:30p.

Lastly, on September 30, we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month during worship with Spanish worship songs and a bilingual sermon. All worship services will have some elements of this as we celebrate Hispanic heritage, and our contemporary service will feature it prominently.

As I said, there's a lot of music going on this month.

We hope to see you!

Meet Betsy Brunette

Story by Camille Cantwell

You have probably seen or met Betsy Brunette at Tab. She first came to Tab in 1982 at the invitation of Jeannie Byers when they were both part of a Bible study fellowship. Betsy has a deep love for Tab; its members, visitors and ministries.

Betsy was raised in the Methodist church and considers Crawfordsville her hometown. Her mother was an enthusiastic church organist and her father taught at Wabash College. From the time she was in seventh grade, Betsy knew she wanted to be a dental hygienist. She practiced her profession part-time for 31 years. For forty years she has been married to Dan, the owner of Brunette and Associates, a wealth management firm located in downtown Indianapolis. Betsy and Dan have three children, Emily, Patrick and Dana, who were all regular attenders of the Sunday school program right here at Tab.

Betsy has been involved in many ministries over the years at Tab, from working in the nursery, to ringing bells in the handbell choir, sewing bibs, burp cloths and baby quilts for Raphael Health Center. "My spiritual gift may be that of hospitality since I love the one-to-one opportunities with members in the congregation," she said. "It could easily become a full-time vocation if I let it," she added.

Betsy will be serving once again as a deacon (her third time since joining Tab) beginning in January 2019. "There's that people thing again," she said, "I love that!"

Accountability is a big part of her walk with the Lord. Involved in Bible studies over the years, she joined a covenant group five or six years ago. Twelve women, mostly Tab members, meet monthly where they share their lives, experiences and thoughts with one another, all while focusing on their walk with the Lord. Studying the Bible has helped her grow in her faith walk over the years, but she still considers herself a "baby in Christ," always learning something new and drawing inspiration from the pastors' teachings.

Betsy enjoys bird-watching, brisk walking, biking, working out, scrapbooking, music and community theatre. While in high school she played the clarinet, danced in ballet and performed in the theater. "Singing and dancing makes me smile," she said. And smile she does!

Blessed with two grandchildren, she visits her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter regularly who live near the beach in Alabama. She will be doing more traveling with her four siblings who all agreed to use the inheritance from their parents to travel together. She mused, "I am so blessed with how my life has unfolded. I thank my parents, and especially my mom, for my outlook on life."

Let's Get Cooking....

Story by Paula Means

Last month we introduced you to Tab's new Kitchen Manager, James Bryant, and Assistant Manager, Rhonda Kaley. You know that they prepare the meals for our Open Door guests, but they are also here to provide food services for all of our programs and special events when requested.

When you reserve a room for your meeting or event with Matt Kauffman, you will receive an event form which helps the kitchen staff determine what resources are required to support your meeting or event. Those resources can include paper products, flatware, beverages and food.

James and Rhonda are also the exclusive caterers for any non-Tab organization reserving a room for their meeting or event. The recent kitchen reorganization helps us better manage our church financial resources as well as our building and supplies, and with the reorganization comes some small changes in processes that will make a big difference in helping the kitchen staff operate smoothly and efficiently.

You can help with this new process by doing the following:

1. All non-Tab organizations are automatically redirected to Matt if a request comes in through the Front Desk.
2. For any Tab meeting and/or event that is not a recurring entry on the church calendar, you should first talk to Matt Kauffman or have an outside group to talk to Matt.
3. Matt will check the church calendar and ask about the specifics of the planned event.
4. If the event, in either case, is being planned with the intention of serving food, one of the following things will occur:
 - a. Non-Tab organizations will be referred to James and Rhonda, since they are the designated caterers for Tab. They will work with the organization to choose a menu that is in alignment with their planned budget.
 - b. Tab organizations will be asked to complete the event form Matt has given them with respect to their food requirements. This should be completed even if the event is a pitch-in or a member of the committee is preparing the food.
 - c. In both cases, the completed forms should be submitted to Paula Means who will record the information and discuss the specific needs with James and Rhonda.
 - d. If all of the necessary information is not on the form, either James or Rhonda will contact the organizer with specific questions in an effort to ensure a quality event.

These procedures will be very helpful in establishing a history of our recurring events, which will reduce confusion when committee leadership changes and help us in forecasting supply purchases with greater accuracy which impacts the budget process. We hope that the benefit of this new procedure will outweigh any inconvenience. No plan is perfect until it is put in practice and improved through suggestions and mistakes. We are expecting a few mistakes and will be welcoming to all suggestions. Any questions regarding these procedures should be directed to Paula Means at paula.means@tabpres.org or 317-923-5458.

After the service, members from both congregations will break bread together over a plate of lasagna, salad, garlic bread and dessert in the Tab Dining Room. You can help make lunch special by contributing your favorite salad or a loaf of garlic bread. PRETEEN KICK-OFF BREAKFAST

On Saturday, September 8, Tab's fifth and sixth graders are invited to our annual Preteen Kickoff Breakfast. We will meet at Lincoln Square Pancake House (2330 N. Meridian) from 9:00a until 10:15a or so for breakfast, and to talk about our plans for the upcoming school year. You don't need to bring any money, but an RSVP to Mrs. Wirt by Thursday, September 6, would be helpful so we know how big a table to reserve. Contact: jennifer.wirt@tabpres.org or 923-5458, ext. 140

RHYTHMS OF THE WORLD FALL PROGRAM

All fourth through sixth graders are invited to join us for eight exciting Saturdays of singing, drumming and art as Rhythms of the World Experience returns for a fall session. Beginning on Saturday, September 8, from 10:00a to noon and ending on October 27, these Saturday sessions will be filled with fun and educational opportunities for the participants. Attendance at all sessions will be expected and parents or other family members will be expected to participate in some way during the program. Register today online at Rhythms of the World Experience or see Matt Kauffman for registration forms. Enrollment will be limited to the first 25 students.

"CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY" WOMEN'S STUDY

All ladies are invited to join us on Monday evenings from September 10-November 12. We will meet in the Parlor at 6:00p to study "Christian Community" and consider ways to grow in community - loving and nurturing one another and in reflecting Christ's love to the world around us. Contact Ruth Miller at mrs.ruth.h.miller@gmail.com or Jennifer Hamilton at jenns.hamilton@gmail.com for a study guide or questions.

SACRED MUSIC SYMPOSIUM VOLUNTEERS NEEDED (SEPTEMBER 12-SEPTEMBER 14)

Hospitality: Folks are needed to work desks, greet, provide directions, serve and clean up after meals, usher at both the Wednesday and Friday evening concerts, and to work the receptions. This requires an outgoing personality, knowledge of the church layout and a steady hand for serving meals. Heavy lifting: A few strong backs are needed for Tuesday the 11th to set up tables and chairs, move the piano in McKee Chapel and to move handbells. Helpers would be needed again on Wednesday and Friday evenings to tear down and set up the Dining Room for receptions and will probably need to come back at certain times to move the handbells back and forth for about half an hour each time. We will also need people to set up for orchestra rehearsal, dress rehearsal, concerts and the Festival Choir rehearsals. Photographers: We need at least one person who is an accomplished photographer. Preferably, someone who has their own camera and is adept at taking candid shots. Bus drivers: If you have expertise in driving our Tab bus, we need at least two more volunteers. Free childcare during the day is available, upon request. Contact: Mike O'Banyel at mike.obanyel@tabpres.org or 317-459-0560

TABERNACLE HANDBELL CHOIR

The Tab Handbell Choir is looking for a couple of new ringers for this coming season. Do you read music and want to get to know some of your fellow Tab members? It's fun and easy to learn and our "small group" is loaded with some real characters! Come and join the fun beginning Thursday evening, September 20, beginning at 6:00p. We end promptly at 6:45p so join us for an evening of ringing our praise to the Lord! Contact: Matt Kauffman matt.kauffman@tabpres.org or 923-5458, ext. 102

TAKE A TOUR OF TAB!

Are you interested in the history of our beautiful church? Now is your chance to learn more about this historic building. At noon on Sunday, September 23, Matt Kauffman will be giving a guided tour of the church. Please remain in the Sanctuary following the 11:00a worship service that day if you'd like to participate. We offer this tour twice a year. The next tour is tentatively scheduled for March 2019.

TABFEST 2018

The TabFest planning team has been busy organizing this year's all-church retreat (fondly known to Tab members as "TabFest") and we're so excited about this special weekend away! This year's TabFest will take place November 9-11 at the Inn at Turkey Run State Park. Our speaker will be Purdue chaplain, Rob Schruppf, whose book Living the Gospel in the Grey; the Art of Coming Alongside will be our all-church read this October. There will be separate sessions for teens and elementary students, and childcare will be available during the adult sessions for children who are not yet school-aged. We will also have abundant free time to explore the beautiful park, an all-ages special banquet Saturday evening, and a fellowship event after dinner on Saturday. We will begin registrations on Sunday, September 30, in McKee Hallway. Prices for lodging for the weekend range from $182 to $264 per room, and the dining price

THE PROMISED LAND - ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

We tend to dismiss Israel's history between the fall of Jericho and the rise of King Saul as the "dark ages" between Moses and the glory years of David and Solomon. Yet God gave the Israelites the land as the culmination of a long-standing promise, and for hundreds of years they had the chance to live there in peace and plenty. We remember the stories of Joshua, Rahab, Gideon, Samson and Ruth, but we overlook the narrative of God's providence and patience. Join us for a fresh look at God's dealings with His people in an earlier age and His lessons for us today. We will use the Tyndale One-Year NIV Chronological Bible as our text. Please join us at 9:00a & 10:00a in the Parlor, September through December!
