Great Is God's Faithfulness!

Dear Friends,

Have you ever gotten a tune stuck in your head that just plays over and over? Some people call it an “earworm!” For instance, “It’s a small world after all!”

While that tune can quickly drive you to distraction, “Great is Thy Faithfulness” is a song that I am grateful to have continually playing in my head. “Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father; there is no shadow of turning with Thee...” Perhaps you can almost hear me humming that great hymn as I type it!

Great is Thy Faithfulness is the theme of our 2019 Stewardship Program and appropriately so. God has been so faithful to Tab and our people through our 167 year history!

Many hymns are written following some profound experience of faith, but not so this beloved hymn. It is based on Lamentations 3:22-24. “The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness! ‘The Lord is my portion,’ says my soul, ‘Therefore I hope in Him!’”

Thomas Chisholm wrote “Great Is Thy Faithfulness” in 1923 as a testament to God’s faithfulness throughout his very “ordinary” life. Born in a log cabin in Franklin, Kentucky, Chisholm became a Christian when he was twenty-seven and entered the ministry when he was thirty-six, though poor health forced him to retire after just one year. During the rest of his life, Chisholm spent many years living in New Jersey and working as a life insurance agent. Still, even with a desk job, he wrote nearly 1,200 poems throughout his life, including several published hymns.

Chisholm explained toward the end of his life, “My income has not been large at any time due to impaired health in the earlier years which has followed me on until now. Although I must not fail to record here the unfailing faithfulness of a covenant-keeping God, and that He has given me many wonderful displays of His providing care, for which I am filled with astonishing gratefulness.” (Gaither Homecoming Bible)

Perhaps you have a dramatic story to tell of how God has rescued and redeemed your life or perhaps like Thomas Chisholm, and so many of us, your life has been marked by God’s “ordinary” grace. Regardless, each of us can speak and sing of God’s never-ending faithfulness which is new every morning!

I invite you today to take a moment to reflect upon the many different ways you see God’s faithfulness in your life, regardless of your circumstances, and give thanks!

I look forward to worshiping with you this Sunday.

Mozel Sanders Dinner: A Family Tradition

Story by Camille Cantwell

As we approach the season of Thanksgiving, we are reminded of all the blessings we have been given during the year and over the years. One such blessing was founded over 45 years ago by Reverend Moxel Sanders, pastor of a small urban Indianapolis church, Mount Vernon Missionary Baptist. Dr. Sanders began the traditional Thanksgiving dinner to feed his own congregants and the surrounding community. Tabernacle Presbyterian Church's connection began back in the 1970s when Moxel Sanders wanted to reach more of the community. This is when Tab member, Ted O'Banyel, got involved.

"If my dad did something, my mom did it too," said Mike O'Banyel, Ted's son and lifetime member of Tab. Mike sat down to talk about the history of Tab's involvement with the Moxel Sanders Thanksgiving dinner and how it has grown over the 40 years Tab's been involved. After Mike graduated from college, he eventually moved back to Indianapolis and assisted his dad by running the kitchen operations. He remembers when all the food was cooked off-site and the hot food was brought to Tab for distribution on Thanksgiving morning.

"After Moxel's church kitchen could no longer handle the volume, it moved to Tech High School," Mike explained. Hot food in large buckets were brought to Tab, where volunteers would form a line to bring it down the back stairs into the kitchen. The food was kept warm, plated up and eaten at tables in the Dining Room. Eventually, the ministry outgrew Tech High School's capacity and the operations moved to Butler University where it currently resides.

After Ted passed away in 2000, Mike's mom, Eileen, took over the operations at Tab. Mike moved out of the kitchen and his sons Ryan and Sean stepped in. Today, Mike, with the help of his wife Jill, organizes the event while Sean runs the kitchen operations.

With almost 40 satellite locations, Stephanie Sanders, Moxel's daughter-in-law and her sons, run the city-wide annual event through the Moxel Sanders Foundation. Tab is the second oldest satellite and the largest distributor of meals. It is one of only four locations that cook the food on-site.

Unlike other locations which receive clamshell style containers already filled with hot food, Tab volunteers prepare most of the food and fill the clamshells to order. Tab distributes between 750-850 meals on Thanksgiving Day. Neighbors call in orders and volunteers provide delivery service, while others walk in, order their meals and eat pie as they wait for their order. But that's not all they get. Tab offers extra goodies other satellites do not.

"Tab is one of only several sites that hands out commodities," Mike remarked. Gleaners donates commodities, such as canned, packaged food, diapers and blankets. Volunteers bag up these items during the first shift on Thanksgiving morning and then they are distributed to all who receive meals.

Tab also receives baked goods from Taylor's Bakery which donates only to the Tab satellite. These are included in the commodity bags.

"They bring these on Wednesday evening and it includes donuts, cakes, rolls, cookies - you name it!" Mike exclaimed.

Finally, Tab is the only satellite that offers homemade pies for dessert. "My parents started that," he said. Over 200 pies are collected each year. Tab's Boy Scout Troop and Youth group make pies as service projects before Thanksgiving and Tab members drop off pies at Tab all day on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

Recently, Tab expanded its ministry to include an outreach team whose mission is to pray with and offer comfort to those who come to our Dining Room. When Mike relayed this to Stephanie Sanders, she said, "Mozel would love that!"

But the thrust of the Mozel Sanders Thanksgiving Dinner is still to feed as many people as possible. "If we can give them a meal. . ." Mike choked up a bit, pointing out that filling our neighbors' spiritual needs begins by meeting their physical needs.

Mike, Jill and Sean dedicate two full days each year to carry on Mozel Sanders' and Ted O'Banyel's Thanksgiving mission, but they could not do it without the volunteers who faithfully serve with them. When asked how many volunteers it takes to run the event, Mike took some time to add them all up. "It takes about 115-120 volunteers!" He exclaimed. "Wow, I never counted them all. That's a lot of volunteers!"

So, does the O'Banyel family get to celebrate Thanksgiving? They sure do! When the last dish is washed, the floors and kitchen are clean, when the lights are turned out and the church doors are locked up, the O'Banyels are treated to a home-cooked Thanksgiving dinner at their long-time friend's house, the Schroeder's, thankful for another year of serving meals to our neighbors and thankful for all of Tab's dedicated volunteers.

NOTE: If you would like to volunteer to help with the Mozel Sanders Thanksgiving Dinner this year, sign-ups will begin on Sunday, November 4. Homemade pies will be collected all day on Wednesday, November 21.

Press On!

Earlier this fall, Pastor John Gable provided a short pre-game devotional to about 15 Princeton Tiger football players who were in town to play Butler.

The devotional centered around 1 Corinthians 9:24-27 and Hebrews 12:1-2. Pastor John pointed out that we are all in a race and that some races are a sprint and some are a marathon, some are hard and some are easy but we are encouraged no matter what our race might be; to press on...keep going!

(Unfortunately for all of us Butler fans, Princeton steamrolled our Bulldogs that evening 50-7.)

Children's Ministries is partnering again with the Samaritan's Purse organization for "Operation Christmas Child" this holiday season. Tab's families are encouraged to participate by filling a shoebox with small toys, games, toiletries and small clothing items (hats, gloves, etc.) that will be sent to children in developing countries to share the celebration of Christ's birth. Anyone who would like to participate can pick up a box and a label from the Front Desk or Lower Level B Hallway on Sunday mornings or at the Front Desk during the week. The packages must be back at Tab by November 13 so we can take them to the central collection site for mailing overseas in mid-November.

The church is planning a Recognition Sunday on November 18, with a worship service at 10:00a and a luncheon to follow. Reservations for the luncheon are required by calling the church office at 937-548-3188. In his letter to the congregation John writes, "You have been a huge part of an amazing voyage. You have blessed me personally by allowing me into your lives as Christ's instrument, whether it was a time of deep loss, a celebrative time of your marriage, as a counselor, a Bible study teacher, a preacher, a prayer partner, a covenant brother, a community leader or friend. The sacred trust you shared with me during this time will long be cherished." We celebrate John's retirement and give thanks to God for his ministry.

OFFICE CLOSED

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the Tab offices will be closed on November 22 and 23 so that our staff can spend holiday time with their families.
