Pastoral Reflection

What Will They Say?

Dear Friends,

On Sunday morning, December 9, just before reading the Scripture lesson and preaching, I reflected briefly on the life and legacy of President George H. W. Bush after having watched his funeral services earlier that week. Regardless of one's political persuasion or thoughts regarding his presidency one cannot help but be inspired by his life of service to our country and his love of family and friends, and opponents, alike. During the memorial service a friend of ours texted, "Inspiring! Makes me want to be better!" I agree.

While life has moved on for us (and by the time you read this that service will seem in the distant past) I want to encourage you, as I have myself, to reflect and consider what we can "take away" from our reflections on the way "41" lived his life.

As I mentioned that Sunday morning, one day there will be a gathering of family and friends to remember each of us, perhaps not with quite the pomp and circumstance or wide-media coverage, but a gathering of people who will pause to reflect and remember us and the way we lived our lives.

What will they say about us? What words will they use to describe us, our actions, our characters, the way we lived our lives? Will anyone be "inspired" and "want to be better?" As long as we have breath we have the opportunity to change, to improve, to be better.

In his book, The Road to Character, columnist David Brooks contrasts our "résumé virtues" - achieving wealth, fame and status, with our "eulogy virtues," those that exist at the core of our being: kindness, bravery, honesty, faithfulness and the like. "Résumé virtues" focus on ourselves and our own wants and needs to be first, right, in control, while "eulogy virtues" focus on the other and the kinds of relationships we have formed.

The Apostle Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, writes these words of encouragement: "Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing these things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you." (Philippians 4:8-9)

As we enter into this new year, let us commit ourselves to living lives of virtue and character so that when that day comes when our family and friends gather to remember and reflect upon the living of our lives, they too, will be "inspired" to "be better."

I look forward to sharing this year in worship and service with you.

Rev. L. John Gable

P.S. Enclosed is a Funeral Arrangement Form that we use at Tab. If you have not yet completed one for yourself let me encourage you to do so as a gift to your family or those who one day will be making arrangements for you. You can return your completed forms to the Front Office. Either Oscar or I would be happy to visit with you about your arrangements, if you so desire.

Doressa Kupke & Sarah Noel

For four months last year, if you wanted to find a certain dozen Tab members early on Saturday mornings, you could have found them in a Broad Ripple parking lot.

Stretching, tightening shoe laces, hooking up headphones and praying. They were preparing for their weekly group run, part of their training program for the Monumental Half Marathon.

Whether it was a cool and clear dawn, a humid and hot morning or a cold and dreary daybreak, they were there, cheerful and ready to run. For some, each Saturday would challenge them to run farther than they ever had before. Partnering with runners from Light of the World Christian Church, Faith Presbyterian Church and Northview Church Binford, the Tab team started with a 35-minute run in July. By the end of August the runners had notched their first 5-miler. In mid-October they ran 10 miles and on November 13, they completed the 13.1-mile half-marathon.

As delighted as they were to participate in the event, it wasn't running that attracted them. It was bringing water to people in Africa through World Vision, a Christian humanitarian organization. World Vision helps millions of people around the world each year, attacking some of mankind's greatest challenges: poverty, famine, lack of education, AIDS, disaster relief and more. Last year, one of its core programs (the one supported by the Tab runners and donors) delivered clean water to 3.2 million people by drilling and installing working wells. It would be hard to overstate the impact that clean water can have. A lack of water suitable for drinking, cooking, sanitation and hygiene kills some 1,000 children every day around the world through diarrhea and other curable illnesses. In some areas, having "access" to water means walking long hours to distant wells and back again, sometimes multiple times a day. This time spent fetching water means no time to work, or for children to attend school.

The Tab crew did its part to help deliver clean water to these people. Thanks to generous donations from Tab members and other friends and supporters, the Tab team raised $18,075 - enough, according to World Vision data, to supply clean water to 360 Africans. Across Indianapolis, World Vision teams raised more than $1 million, which means World Vision can provide nearly 20,000 people in Africa with clean water. At the same time that World Vision works with African communities to address their water needs, the organization also delivers Living Water. As the organization points out, "Water initiatives provide an ideal way for World Vision staff to share their faith. Receiving water not only brings good health, but also opens up a conversation about the character of Christ." And a Ghanaian who leads World Vision programs in southern Africa added, "It is Jesus who enables us to strike water. That water is stored there by God."

New Members Welcome!

On Sunday, November 18, 2018, we welcomed the following new members to our Tab Church family. Here is some information about each of them that you can print out and add to your Pictorial Directory. Their pictures are on display in McKee Hallway. Please seek out these new members and do your part to welcome them to the fellowship of Tab!

Announcements & Events

HOLIDAY CLOSINGS

The Church Offices will be closed on Tuesday, January 1, for the New Year's Day holiday. Have a safe and blessed New Year! The church will also be closed on Monday, January 21, in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

SERVICE OF ORDINATION AND INSTALLATION

A service of Ordination and Installation for all of our new elders and deacons will be held on Sunday, January 13, during our morning services of worship. Please pray for our church officers as they begin their terms of service.

NEW ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

In this six-session Everybody, Always Bible study, bestselling author Bob Goff shares some of the stories from his life that have helped him understand what it truly means to love everybody the way Jesus loved them - without fear, insecurity or restriction. This begins by loving people right where you are through serving and helping the neighbors God has placed into your world. We'll meet in the Parlor at 10:00a beginning January 6 - February 17 (we'll skip February 3). This class will be co-facilitated by Josh and Doressa Kupke. Sign up for study guides in McKee Hallway (a $5 donation is suggested).

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Ladies, please mark your calendars to join us in the Resource Center on Monday evenings at 6:00p beginning on February 4. We will be exploring the topic of "Hope." These studies are an encouraging start to the week and a great way to connect, pray and learn with other women. Contact Ruth Miller at mrs.ruth.h.miller@gmail.com or Jennifer Hamilton at jenns.hamilton@gmail.com for a study guide or questions.

DISCIPLESHIP: JUST LIKE JESUS

Jesus calls us to be His disciples and not just His fans. That involves changing (and being changed) into His likeness. Max Lucado's book Just Like Jesus will be the starting point of this class and a pointer to Biblically-focused discussion. "God loves you just the way you are, but He refuses to leave you that way. He wants you to be just like Jesus." Please join us on January 6 - February 17, at 9:00 in the Resource Center.

MISSION UNIT KICKS OFF

It's time for all Tab elementary students to begin their "trip around the world" during this year's Missions Unit. On January 6, we'll prepare for our journey by making passports and name pins, decorating our travel bags, and learning a bit about the steps involved in becoming a missionary. Then on January 13 and continuing through February 24, we'll be visiting a new country each week to learn about the geography, language, culture, religious practices and Christian mission efforts of that country. This year's countries include Poland, Turkey, Argentina, Tanzania, Alaska, the Philippines and Italy.

PRETEEN "LUNCH AND A MOVIE"

On Monday, January 21, all Tab fifth and sixth-graders are invited to join us for our traditional MLK day outing. We'll go out together lunch and then head to Castleton for a movie. Cost per student is $5. Please let Mrs. Wirt know by January 17 if you're going on the trip so we can be sure to have enough drivers. Contact: jennifer.wirt@tabpres.org or 923-5458, ext. 140

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

On January 26, beginning at 5:30p, Children's Ministries will host a Family Fun Night for the entire Tab family. We'll have a pitch-in dinner, followed by board games, Euchre, and the film "The Greatest Showman" on the Gallery "big screen." Children's Ministries will provide the main dish and beverages. Please bring a side dish or dessert to share. Child care will be available after dinner for children younger than five. No reservations are needed.

RING AND SING IN THE NEW YEAR

The beginning of a new year is a great time to join the Handbell or Sanctuary Choir of Tab. If you would like to be a part of one of these great groups of folks, join us on Thursday evenings! Handbells rehearse from 6:00p-6:45p in the Sanctuary, and the Sanctuary Choir rehearses from 7:15p-9:00p in the Choir Rehearsal Room. Bring your talent, great or small, and join us for a wonderful season of making music as we glorify God together!

WELCOME LITTLE ONES

Congratulations to William Daymon and Kelli Cobb on the birth of their baby boy, William "Jack" Daymon, on November 14; and Tony and Sarah Malito on the birth of their baby girl, Hannah Marie Malito, on December 3. Hannah is the granddaughter of Steve and Jennifer Weyreter. Congratulations to these families!

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The Tab Church family extends our sympathies to Holly Gamage and her family in the passing of her father, David G. Merriman, on December 6; and to Karen and Doug Smith and their family in the passing of Karen's mother, Joyce Pangel, on December 15. Joyce is grandmother to Lilia Smith and Janna (Smith) Wade. Please keep these families in your thoughts and prayers.
