Pastoral Reflection

A Set Period of Time

Dear Friends,

Twice during the course of my ministry I have been privileged to be granted a “sabbatical” leave, once during my ministry in Wisconsin and once since being at Tab. What a gift those times away have been for me and my family.

A “sabbatical” is not just an additional or extended vacation; rather it is time away (each of mine have been three months in length) intentionally designed for “renewal, refreshment and reflection.” The word itself comes from the same root word as “Sabbath,” one day out of seven, designed and intended for us to cease from our regular labors and routines in order to be refreshed and renewed, to spend more time in reflection and prayer, even to be more intentional about nurturing relationships with family members and friends and for “self-care.”

For many years, the Lilly Endowment has put great emphasis on and has made a huge financial commitment to the idea of “sabbaticals” for pastors through the Clergy Renewal program, which they describe as allowing pastors “A time for drinking again from God’s life-giving waters, for regaining enthusiasm and creativity for ministry.”

No, I am NOT announcing plans for another “sabbatical” for myself, but I am suggesting one for you.

What if we were to see this period of mandatory “stay at home,” not as an “imposition or an inconvenience” but as an opportunity, as a “gift of sabbatical?”

What if during this time (regardless of how long it has been or will be) when our regular routines are interrupted we allowed this to be a time of “Sabbath” rest, a time to be refreshed and renewed (spiritually- by spending more time in the Word and in prayer; physically - by taking walks or getting regular exercise; emotionally - by paying closer attention to how we are “feeling” not just what we are “doing,” and relationally - even in a time of social/physical distancing)?

By design, a Sabbatical is for a “set period of time.” The purpose of a Sabbatical, just as it is for the “Sabbath day,” is for us to “press the pause button” on our regular routines in order to learn new ways of doing things and of taking care of yourself and others, of deepening relationships with God and neighbor, of being refreshed and renewed, all with the intention and understanding that at the end of the Sabbatical there will be RE-ENTRY and RE-ENGAGEMENT.

This can be the intention of our “forced sabbatical” as well! One day, sooner or later, we will get back to a “new normal” and when we do - let us return renewed and refreshed, ready to continue the mission and ministry we believe God has given us to do at the corner of 34th and Central!

So, drink deeply, my friends, of God’s life-giving waters as we ready ourselves to re-enter ministry in His name with renewed enthusiasm and creativity. I look forward to that day!

“See” you in worship this Sunday!

Protocols for Committee Meetings During Covid-19 Pandemic

- Chairs/staff are encouraged to send electronic agendas to committee members prior to the meeting.
- Continue to encourage Zoom, or similar online, meeting formats.
- High-risk individuals should be encouraged to join the meeting from home via computer or phone.
- Members who exhibit fever or other symptoms or who have been exposed to someone testing positive for COVID-19 within the last 14 days should not participate in in-person committee meetings.
- The Parking Lot entrance will be the only access to the building.
- Parking Lot doors will be unlocked and propped open 15 minutes prior to the start time of your meeting and locked 15 minutes after the start time of your meeting in order to keep the building secure.
- Masks must be worn in the building at all times.
- Hand sanitizer will be available for committee members at the entrance to the building and in each meeting area.
- Committee members should travel directly in and out of building - no loitering in rooms or hallways.
- Do not enter rooms that have been designated as sanitized.
- Social Distancing Guidelines (6 feet) must be observed upon entering/exiting the building and seating in the designated meeting room - meeting rooms will be pre-set in order to meet social distancing guidelines for seating. Please DO NOT rearrange any of the furnishings in the meeting rooms.
- Meeting room doors are to remain open for the duration of your meeting to provide adequate air circulation.
- Please exit the building immediately following your meeting so that custodians can clean & sanitize.
- The only restrooms available will be the restrooms in the Gallery, Lower Level B and the Women's Restroom outside of the Parlor.
- No food or drinks allowed.
- Drinking fountains will NOT be available for use. Bottled water will be made available for committee meetings.
- Please do not share pens/pencils/paper.

Exploring Discipleship

We asked and you answered!

Story by Nancy Schneider

Greater Faith

Tab will be a place where people are challenged to grow stronger in faith, to become equipped to serve and to pursue opportunities for innovative and collaborative service.

Deeper Relationships

Tab will be a catalyst for deeper, loving relationships that embrace differences for the sake of fellowship and service.

Stronger Community

Tab will work in partnership with its neighbors to strengthen the Mapleton-Fall Creek community, advocate for justice and promote God's shalom for all people.

In the past eighteen months, discipleship has been explored by various leadership communities within Tab, starting with the Session. Pastor Oscar Clavel and the Adult Ministries team are now leading the charge to create a two-year discipleship plan to help Tab family members experience greater faith, deeper relationships and stronger community.

Seeking congregation-wide input was a priority, so a survey on discipleship and spiritual growth was created and distributed in late fall, 2019. Over the course of three weeks, 98 responses were received, which is considered to be an excellent sample. This article offers an overview of the results and offers a few observations.

The Survey Questions and Key Findings

Responses to the first question - "What are your preferred ways to pursue your spiritual growth?" revealed that group Bible study and worship attendance are top choices. There is also a strong interest in one-on-one relationships and several mentions of engaging a spiritual director.

When asked about participation in a Bible study or other related discipleship-related activity through Tab in the last five years, the most popular points of engagement were midweek evening programs, the morning Pastor's Bible study, and Sunday's adult education classes.

The range of "other" write-in responses included participation in the choir, Open Door volunteering, and Women's Ministries special events.

In terms of what motivates this activity, the overwhelming top three responses were (1) experiencing community; (2) the opportunity to learn new things; and (3) a chance to make new connections.

The majority of the respondents did not engage with similar activities outside of Tab. For those who did, they valued having opportunities closer to home, interdenominational groups, including Bible Study Fellowship; and time-sensitive programs on specific topics or events (an example might be a faith-based response to community violence). A few respondents also pursue faith-based expressions for healthcare support groups.

Whether participating in spiritual growth experiences inside or outside of Tab, the consistent motivator is to learn alongside others. There is a high value placed on community.

Questions shifted from wanting to know why people are engaging in discipleship activities, to other aspects of planning - the when and where.

In terms of scheduling, preferences for adult classes are, in order, (1) throughout the academic year; (2) only short series (4-6 weeks) throughout the calendar year; and (3) studies contained with each season (fall, winter, and spring). While there is less interest during the summer, there remains a strong desire for gathering for "a sense of community."

Digging deeper into class frequency, top choices are, in order, (1) bi-weekly; (2) weekly, other than on a Sunday; and (3) on Sunday (not limited to the morning).

The following are the types of studies respondents are most likely to attend:

- Books of the Bible (including Bible use and literacy emphasis)
- Topical Studies (examples are Names of God, Fruits of the Spirit)
- Instructional Life Topics (examples are parenting and financial management)

Given the respondents' emphasis on worship attendance, it's not surprising that the survey showed a desire for adult programs with content that aligns with the sermons. It is unclear if this is related, but a majority appear to be in favor of having the whole church study one topic.

(Article continues on page 5)

When we asked, “What characteristics do you think define a disciple of Jesus Christ?” we were thrilled to receive 79 distinctive responses. Some expected themes included being a student of God’s Word, participating in corporate worship and using spiritual gifts to build up the church. Here’s a sample:

A disciple is someone who is seeking God on a daily basis; wanting His guidance and direction for their life.

A disciple studies Scripture, has a personal prayer life, participates in corporate worship, uses spiritual gifts to build up the church, and shares the reason we have lasting hope.

- A disciple is someone who tries to follow in Jesus' path by walking the walk.
- Always going deeper, not being satisfied, always desiring to know God more, not being afraid to sit with the mystery, always loving and accepting all others.
- Living a life that strives to be more Christ-like, listening to the Holy Spirit and being mindful of His direction.
- Loving God and neighbor.
- Being alive in Christ such that it leads to action in making the world a better place.
- Spending time with God, knowing His Word, and building relationships with others.
- Open to learning, determined to grow, willing to devote time to spiritual disciplines, Bible study and mentoring.

We were also encouraged and humbled by this honest response: “I don’t really understand the scope of the term.”

The survey concluded with an open-ended question, calling for any related comments or suggestions for Adult Ministries. In reviewing the submissions, we smiled at the range of suggestions and opinions. Some of you are convinced that adult classes should be only on Sundays; others strongly suggest finding a day of the week that is better suited. “We’re over-extended on Sundays with serving.”

“Only schedule one class on Sunday mornings.”

“Please, we need variety on Sundays.”

“Limit classes to studies on the Books of the Bible.”

“I’m not so much into doctrinal teaching.”

“The teachers make the class.”

“I prefer anyone who can lead a discussion-based class rather than a lecture-style class.”

“Thank you for your desire to help Tab's congregation and grow in this critical area. Praying for you now.”

Next Steps

More time will be spent on evaluating the survey data. For example, there was mention of “sharing our faith,” but not necessarily “evangelism.” Is this something we need to explore? Also, with the ongoing concerns around COVID-19, should we consider a series of online classes? We are in the process of identifying and equipping additional teachers and facilitators for in-person and distance learning.

Our work will be ongoing throughout the summer. If you have questions about the original survey or have more to add on the subject of discipleship, you are welcome to reach out to the Adult Ministries team through Oscar Clavel at oscar.clavel@tabpres.org. Additionally, Adult Ministries covets your prayers for our wisdom, creativity, patience and faithfulness. Thank you!

Missions Report

A Room With A View

Story by Terri Thorn, Missions Director

"I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers." Ephesians 1:15-16

The view from the best office in the building looks a lot different than it did when I left it eight weeks ago. The dreary winter skies are gone, the grass is much greener and the trees are in full bloom. There are more cars in the intersection...more kids on their bikes...and a new sign. Wait. A. Minute. There's a new sign on the lawn and it's covering the "vision board" for my ministry: our Greater Faith, Deeper Relationships, Stronger Community sign!

Admittedly, I was disappointed, until I considered how the temporary banner declaring our online worship schedule is yet another expression Tab living out Jesus' commandment to love one another. Practicing socially-distant worship is not what any of us would choose, but right now it is one of the most loving things we can do for each other. Not to mention, it has been a surprisingly effective way to share the Gospel far outside the walls of the church - which is at the heart of any vision this Missions Director could ever have!

The sign is also a metaphor for the challenge that the Church faces right now: finding creative ways to love one another when we can't be together in person. Not surprisingly, the Tab family is finding ways to do this well, individually and collectively, on a large and small scale. In fact, the list of the many ways this is happening around Tab is longer than the space I'm allocated for this column, but I would like to highlight one simple way we are loving others.

Each week volunteers from Tab provide snacks to the staff of Raphael Health Center as a way to thank them for their frontline efforts to care for the health of our neighbors. The snacks, which are nothing fancy, are unceremoniously dropped off on Thursdays with as little contact as possible. It is such a small simple gesture; the impact, however, has been immeasurable. See for yourself. The following notes from Raphael staff members were waiting on my desk when I returned to the best job in the best office in the building:

Thank you for the snacks! It's always a great day when we get an email telling us you all made a snack drop! Love, Gwen M (NP)

Thank you so much for being a blessing to our clinic. So grateful for your thoughtfulness and generosity. It's been so good for morale. May the blessings be returned tenfold. Jessi B

Thank you so much for your kindness. Very appreciative, Carol

Thank you so much for the treats. They are so appreciated during this time! Prayers for good health during this time! Angela

Thank you so much for all the goodies you have been bringing us. We really appreciate you! Amanda

Members of Tab, Thank you for all the yummy snacks you have provided Raphael during this difficult time! Been such a blessing to know that you also continue to pray for us & reach out & care! Thank you again! Cara H (Behavioral Dept.)

Thank you so much Tab! When I think of Amazing Churches you TOP at number #1. You have been giving and supporting Raphael Health Center for many years. I am grateful for all you have done and all you do. May God continue to bless this Church! Always, Tawnya (Front Desk)

To all at Tab...What a wonderful world to have such precious souls as yours in it. Thank you for thinking of us!! Amber G (Nursing Staff)

Tab Staff, Thank you for all your prayers, kind words, and food snacks that you have provided for me and my co-workers during this difficult time. Your gesture has not gone unnoticed. Thank you. (not signed)

Tabernacle, I grew up in this neighborhood and have so many fond memories of your church! Thank you for being so thoughtful. (not signed)

In the name of Jesus, your support, the food, and snacks have been a blessing to our mental, physical and spiritual health. LaJeune (LCSW)

Thank you so, so much for our Thursday "yummies" - the blessings of snacks (and even more so you remembering us) is simply uplifting and amazing! Sherry

Your congregation has always been supportive of our work here and the health and well-being of the surrounding community in general. Much appreciated! (not signed)

God bless you for being so thoughtful and kind - Ashley G (FNP)

Friends, when it comes to loving others, the little things ARE the big things that lead to Greater Faith, Deeper Relationships and Stronger Communities. No sign required!

VIRTUAL VBS

As we all know, the majority of our in-person programming, including all of our children's programming, for the spring and the first part of the summer has had to be canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Sadly, this includes this year's planned VBS, KidsGames. However, Children's Ministries has an exciting opportunity to offer an online VBS. This VBS, called "Focus: Take a Closer Look" from the well-regarded curriculum company Orange, is based on Hebrews 2a: "Let us keep looking to Jesus. He is the one who started this journey of faith, and He is the one who completes this journey of faith." We're still figuring out how this VERY new form of VBS will look here at Tab, but we do know that we'll roll it out online the week of June 22. I'll be mailing out a package of supplemental materials which will include worksheets, stickers, parent pages, a CD with all of the songs, and other "fun stuff" to enhance the VBS experience to each Tab family the week before we begin. During the VBS week, we'll be uploading videos and lessons from Orange as well as some content that's Tab-specific, starring some of Tab's well-loved staff members and volunteers. We'll be opening this VBS up to the community just as we do with our regular in-person VBS, so if you know a family who would like to participate, I'll be happy to mail them a supplemental package as well. Children's Ministries is excited about this new way of sharing the Gospel with children, and we welcome your prayers for a successful "Virtual VBS."

VIRTUAL GRADUATION SUNDAY

We know that our graduating students are experiencing a particular level of loss of what was meant to be a well-deserved rite of passage for them. We would like to continue our tradition and recognize our graduates of the 2019-2020 academic year in a video slide show on Sunday, June 14. If you have a student that is graduating from high school, undergrad, graduate, or a doctorate program please send one or two photos with their name, future plans, and connection to Tab. Optional info: funny memory at Tab, exciting opportunities presented to you after graduation and prayer request. Please email to Amy Rexroth at amy.rexroth@tabpres.org by Sunday, June 7.

BUILDING SCHEDULING

As we begin moving toward our "new normal," we will begin opening the Tab facility for official Tab committee meetings only beginning in June. Room availability will be limited as we follow social distancing guidelines so it will be important to check with your Elder or Staff Liaison to make sure when your meetings are scheduled and where you will be meeting. Masks will be required for all persons entering the building for any reason, including committee meetings. Committees will also have the option of continuing to meet online during this time. If you have any questions, please contact Matt Kauffman at 317-923-5458, ext 102 or check the online calendar which is updated as information is received. Thanks for your cooperation and understanding during this time of transition.

LET'S GO TO THE DRIVE-IN
34th & Central North Parking Lot

Who remembers the Lafayette Road drive-in theater (and who will admit it)? Come and enjoy live Jazz and Rock at Tab's "Drive-In Theater."

The North Parking lot will be open and you can enjoy Kenny Phelps, Bryan Thompson (Sax), Tommy Baldwin (vocal and guitar), and the Owl Music band from the comfort of your car or sit outside in a lawn chair. Bring a picnic supper or snacks and enjoy the evening.

Bring a carload...same price FREE!
Yep! We're definitely encouraging "social distancing" - gloves, masks and handwashing stations. We're going to s-p-r-e-a-d out. Mark your calendar. You are going to LOVE the "Drive-In."

P.S. If you really want to have fun, we will need a lot of help, so shoot an email to Jim Babcock at jim.babcock@gmail.com or Terri Thorn at terri.thorn@tabpres.org

Fresh Stop Produce

Story by Cathleen Perry

I recently watched a PBS documentary about the rising incidence of diabetes in this country. The film speculated that it is due to increasing "food deserts" in our cities. In an interview, one man stated that while growing up, he often only ate what was for sale at the corner store. Mostly, it consisted of sugar and "lard," i.e. donuts, sweets, sugary drinks, potato chips, etc. Although thin, he was very ill with diabetes. There was also a hopeful story of a woman who was helping local residents become knowledgeable about community gardening and growing their own fruits and vegetables.

That prompted me to think about Tab's Fresh Stop and the tremendous value it is to bring our community together to buy real food from the garden. I would like to thank Sally John, Chad Lynn and all their faithful volunteers who negotiate, purchase, collect and sell fresh produce and healthy meat so folks have access to good food. It is awesome that people can use SNAP at ¼ the price and others can purchase half price or full price shares. I especially like the concept of "hanging out" while recipes are being prepared, and everyone is inspired together about new ways to prepare yummy food from the earth. I look forward to when we can even "social distance" outside and Fresh Stop can get up and running again. I also want to thank Terri Thorn who is working to find frozen storage for grass-fed beef to be included as a healthy add-on to the produce shares.

The economically disadvantaged are disproportionately affected by COVID-19, perhaps due to underlying medical conditions, including diabetes. Putting "two and two together," our Fresh Stop ministry is more important than ever to bring good food, affordably priced, to shoppers in our Tab community. What a blessing it is to be blessed so that we can be a blessing!! Our good, good Father provides for our needs, and we too can be His helping hands.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The Tab Church family extends our sympathies to the family of Bob Pardue, who passed away on April 24; to Craig and Candy Hammond in the passing of Craig's mother, Marilyn Hammond, on May 1; to Nancy and Bill Gordon in the passing of Nancy's mother, Janet Keith, on May 1; to Michelle and Charlton Browning in the passing of Michelle's father, Eugene Camfield, on May 2; to the family of Pete Peterson who passed away on May 3. Pete was married to Julie, father to John and Alex, the son of John and Nancy Peterson, and the brother of Debbie Midkiff; to Julie Hudson in the passing of her sister, Marilyn Hudson Tribbett, on May 4; and to Randy Green and his family in the passing of his mother, Karen Green, on May 9. Please keep these families in your prayers.

WELCOME LITTLE ONES!

- Emmelyn Mae Hughes was born on May 4. Carly and Kyle Hughes are the parents, and Sharon and Bill Marshall are the grandparents.
- Cleo Jacqueline Kupke was born on April 30. The parents are Doressa and Josh Kupke, the big brothers are Abe and Nolan Kupke, and the grandparents are Christie and John Kupke.

Congratulations and God's blessings on these families!

We're excited to share that our church has access to an extensive, new video library called RightNow Media! It's like the "Netflix of Video Bible Studies" and has a HUGE library of faith-based videos that you can access whenever and wherever you want - on your phone, tablet, computer or on your TV at home. You will have FREE access to thousands of video resources to help you with parenting, marriage, discipleship, emotional health and more. It includes content for all ages and stages of life, and all of your family members are invited to set up their own accounts as well. To get started, visit www.rightnowmedia.org/Account/Invite/TabernaclePres and create an account. You can start watching right away.

There's also a RightNow Media app for your smart-phone, tablet, Apple TV, Roku or Amazon Fire TV. Questions? Contact Oscar Clavel at oscar.clavel@tabpres.org.
