Summer Plans?

Dear Friends,

Do you have summer plans? Hitting the road or planning a “stay-cation?” Got some projects to do around the house or a pile of good books to read?

We have a full and fun summer planned, too!

I will be leading a group of 28 to the Holy Land beginning June 13 and would appreciate your prayers for safe travels and open eyes and hearts to hear and see that land and the people we will meet. Then, in both July and August, we are blocking out some time to be with our kids and grandkids, both here and there which, of course, we are looking forward to.

If you are looking for something to do around Tab, pull out your calendars!

TabJams is coming and there is a great line-up of artists: Sunday, June 12; Sunday, July 10; and Sunday, August 14 at 6p! TabJams is not only a great music event in Tab Park but is also a wonderful opportunity to invite a neighbor or friend to come and join you and for us to get to know our Tab neighborhood friends.

Vacation Bible School is the week of June 13–17. We will invite all the children of Tab and our Tab Tutoring kids and others from the neighborhood to come and join us for a week of learning and fun activities. Adult volunteers are always needed. Interested? Contact Jennifer Wirt, our Director of Children’s Ministries, for more details.

Blood Drive on Sunday June 19. Summertime is always the season when the blood bank needs additional donors, so we want to help. You can sign up when you are at church or contact Paula Daum, our Coordinator of Lay Ministries, for more information.

Youth Mission trip to Phoenix. After taking a several year hiatus our youth group is returning to Neighborhood Ministries in Phoenix to help with their Vacation Bible School and renew friendships.

On Saturday, June 25, our resident Chef André and his cohorts are going to have a Food Trucks United Fundraiser in our Parking Lot. Proceeds will go to support Fallen Heroes and Tab’s Open Door Ministry. Chef André is doing a wonderful job preparing delicious food for our Open Door guests.

On Sunday, August 7, we are going to host the 50th Anniversary of the Tab Youth Caravan that was so influential in the lives of the young people who participated in it. Three of the participants were called in to the ministry during that time. On Sunday, August 7, Rev. Glenn McDonald, a son of our church and one of those who were called to ministry, will be our guest preacher.

Then on Sunday, August 28, we are going to have a “brownie event!” Yes, like in chocolate brownies. Through the good leadership of the Mission Committee and the support of the Session, we were able to purchase a new brownie making machine for our mission partners in Colombia! The machine is on order now and is hoped to be delivered by the end of August. So, so while they resume making brownies down there we are going to celebrate with them up here!

There are many other events and activities being planned at Tab this summer; not to mention worship, Bible studies, small group meetings and other activities, so watch the Chimes, the bulletins and the weekly email blasts...and keep your calendars close at hand.

I look forward to worshipping with you!

Open Door Grand Opening

A safe place for food & conversation

by Terri Thorn

A joyful Grand Opening Celebration for the Open Door Café was held on Friday, May 20. The vision for this new restaurant-style, relational ministry is “Feeding bodies and souls by providing a safe place with good food and even better conversation for the sake of authentic relationship building that fosters Greater Faith, Deeper Relationships and Stronger Communities.” These photos only capture a glimpse of how well the celebration revealed every aspect of this vision.

Chef André of Delectable Cuisine Catering prepared a delicious meal served by a team of volunteers from Tab and the community. Nearly 50 people - both neighbors and Tab members alike – enjoyed the meal as well as activities throughout the morning. Long-time hospitality volunteer, Jim Babcock, blessed the meal and Chaplain Dan Williams, also a Tab member, shared a devotion for the day. Guests were entertained by a local line-dancing troop, Ladies of the Dance, from Heritage Place Senior Center (and perhaps got a chuckle at Pastor Terri’s attempt to learn their moves!)

The highlight of the day, though, was not the food or the entertainment. It was the blessing of seeing the genuine hospitality and curious conversation taking place around the tables. It was as if friends, family and distant relatives had gathered for a reunion. The doors were truly “open” to all, relationships were being formed (or renewed) and God’s presence was among us. The celebration not only matched the vision for Open Door Café; it was, most assuredly, also that of a holy banquet in God’s Kingdom. Thanks be to God...and to all who continue to support this ministry.

“The doors were truly “open” to all, relationships were being formed (or renewed) and God’s presence was among us.”

Meet Rick & Patty Reel

by Paula Daum

Tab is blessed with several life-long members, such as Leonard Raymond (Rick) Reel III. Rick was born in Indianapolis and lived near 34th and College as a child. His grandparents and parents were active members of Tab, and Rick remembers multiple generations of his family all sitting together in the same pew each week for worship.

After finishing high school at North Central, Rick studied business at IU, where he also participated in the Little 500 and was a varsity wrestler. Upon graduating, he returned to Indianapolis to work in the family business, Reel Pipe and Valve, founded by his grandfather, Leonard Reel, Sr., in 1939 and is still in business today.

Patty grew up attending Northminster Presbyterian Church, but her parents married in Tab's chapel. She attended Broad Ripple High School and then obtained bachelor's and master's degrees from Butler University. She began work as a psychometrist and then became a special education teacher in Lawrence Township Schools. It was there that she taught fellow Tab member, Gilbert Orban.

Rick and Patty met at a party hosted by Tab members Mary and Dave Mills. They were married in 1977 in the chapel by Dr. Byron Crozier. Their three children, Katy, Lenny (Leonard IV) and Amy, were actively involved in Tab's Children's and Youth Ministries programs.

Katy felt an early call to serve in the mission field. After college, she taught school for two years in California, then took a job with Neighborhood Ministries (NM) in Phoenix. Her impact on the children and families of NM was significant. However, after just a few years at NM, Katy was diagnosed with a brain tumor and passed away in January of 2006. Patty has spent many years in a labor of love in writing Katy's story. Her book, "Tell Them What You Know: Katy's Story," was recently published. Neighborhood Ministries remains a Tab-supported ministry today.

During her illness, Lenny, Amy, Rick and Patty moved to Phoenix to help Katy. Lenny is still there today serving as the director of Katy's Kids, which is the NM preschool created and named in honor of his sister. He and his wife, Gricelda, are the proud parents of Leonard V (Leo) and Milena (Mina). Amy lives in Indianapolis with her husband, Omar Martin, and their son Antonio. An artist, Amy's artwork can be found on the card used in Tab's Gracious Gifts Alternative Gift Market. Omar works as an electrical engineer.

"They love 'doing life' with their Tab family, and they are grateful to be a part of Tab where 'Jesus is the center' and 'God is raised up.'"

Rick and Patty have served at Tab in so many ways. Patty served as a deacon and elder, sang in the choir, was superintendent of Sunday school (prior to paid staffing) and has been a Tab tutor. She continues to serve on the Gracious Gifts committee, and she fondly remembers her time visiting with Tab's homebound members.

Rick is a former triathlete. He has also been committed to service at Tab as a deacon, elder and volunteer.

Patty and Rick recall with deep gratitude the love and support that they received from the Tab family during Katy's illness, as well as during some of their own health challenges through the years. They love "doing life" with their Tab family, and they are grateful to be a part of Tab where "Jesus is the center" and "God is raised up."

The product of a collaboration of the Missions and Spiritual Growth and Development committees, the stories seek to help the Tab community become more aware of the often-neglected contributions that Black men and women have made to our city, state, nation and world. As greater knowledge brings greater understanding, it is our hope that we can help to improve connections between races and begin to dismantle aspects of our culture that act as barriers to equity.

We pursue this goal guided by the example of Christ. As Ephesians 2:14 points out, "For He Himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility."

While the list of featured individuals for the year has not been finalized, the plan is for monthly articles to celebrate men and women from the arts, literature, government, music, business, sports and more. While some likely will offer lesser-known facts about well-known individuals, others will shine a light on people the history books might have neglected, always seeking to offer stories that make readers say, "I didn't know that!"

Watch for the stories in various Tab media and feel free to recommend individuals for consideration for future articles. Submit your suggestions to frontdesk@tabpres.org.

Wednesday evening rehearsals begin on June 8 from 6:30p–8p; Sunday rehearsals begin on June 12. Elementary aged friends are welcome to participate as well! If you have questions, please contact Jennifer Wirt.

A Look Back

Decades of Challenges and Growth

by Bruce McDonald

When Dr. Ambrose Dunkel came to Tab in 1918 the membership was at 748, roughly the same number that had held steady the previous 20 years. Eleven years later, in 1929, much had changed. Membership had quadrupled to 3,002 (it would peak at almost 3,500 in 1935), Sunday School attendance was in excess of 2,000, a recreation program had been launched, and a new church building had been built and expanded. Dr. Dunkel was a national figure, the pastor of the sixth largest Presbyterian church in America. And then a month after the dedication of the new Chapel-Education wing on September 29, 1929, the stock market crashed, and the $265,000 mortgage suddenly proved to be a difficult challenge to pay down.

Fortunately, this was also the year that several women of the church formed Circle A, a social group but also one focused on ministry to both those within and outside of the church. Sensing the need to support the church's sudden financial needs, the ladies called a meeting to see how they might raise funds. According to a delightful document entitled History of Circle A: "Mrs. Adolph Wagner told the ladies about some church that she knew of that made salted peanuts to sell. It was agreed that Mrs. Wagner would get the recipe from a friend, and she invited the group to her house to make the first recipe. The peanuts turned out well, but you should have seen her kitchen when they were finished! We then started our peanut business in the church kitchen the next Monday and have been making them ever since. We sold them for 75-cents a pound, and after we had accomplished that project, we didn't know what to do with the leftover grease from the peanuts, so Mrs. Elvin, Mrs. Wiles and Mrs. Robinson met and worked up a doughnut project. The next Monday we were in the doughnut business as well as the peanut business. Doughnuts sold for 40-cents a dozen. We helped pay the interest on the mortgage on the church during the depression." Circle A faithfully made regular contributions to the cause, setting an admirable example for all.

Long after the mortgage was paid off, the ladies of Circle A, now well into their 70s and 80s, continued to boil peanuts and fry doughnuts, selling them on Mondays every week, until 1972, when "many were afraid someone would get burned handling the heavy pots filled with hot grease." At their last meeting in February 1973, they voted to liquidate their treasury and share it with various groups in the church, including a $1,000 gift to the Endowment Fund, as "a perpetual gift to the work of Tabernacle Presbyterian Church."

Financial challenges notwithstanding, the 1920s and 1930s proved to be an exciting time at Tab. The congregation voted in June 1939 to call an associate minister to support Dr. Dunkel. He, in turn, had previously "expressed doubt to the practicability of two pastors serving the same church," after having served as Tab's only pastor for 21 years, during which time 4,445 new members were added. Perhaps feeling somewhat threatened, Dr. Dunkel resigned two months later and took a call to a much smaller church in Ohio, before passing away in October 1944. A glorious era in Tab history had ended, but another one was soon to start.

WELCOME LITTLE ONE

The Tab family celebrates with Emily and Rich Boits on the arrival of their daughter, Allison Elizabeth, who was born on Monday, May 2. We pray God's blessings on the Boits family. Congratulations!

TAB'S COMMUNITY CLOSET CONTINUES BLESSING TABLE ON WEDNESDAYS AT OPEN DOOR CAFE

Through the generosity of the Tab family, the Community Closet continues to assist friends and neighbors of the Open Door Café ministry. Building on the mission statement of Tab, Wednesday gatherings include offerings to help fulfill physical needs of our community.

At this time, the closet is not accepting clothes or shoes, but accepts donations of new, unopened products listed below. Often, sample sizes fit the needs of our neighbors. The items are distributed through the Open Door Café ministry, Circles, Fresh Stop and Tutoring. When donations exceed need, volunteers may regift to other community partners for distribution.

According to Jennifer Matthews, coordinator of the Blessings Table on Wednesdays, the following items are accepted year-round: shampoo, conditioner, soap bars, lotion, razors, sample mouthwash, toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, lip balm, first aid kits, reading glasses, laundry pods, individually wrapped toilet paper rolls, tissues, paper towels, nail clippers, wash cloths & towels, and feminine hygiene products.

The annual fan distribution will take place Wednesday, June 15, through the Open Door Café. Donors can help with the fan distribution by dropping a fan at the tables in McKee Hallway on Sunday mornings or making a specific donation for use to purchase the box fans.
