Special Donation

to honor John & Kristin Gable

Many have asked about ways to recognize John and Kristin Gable. In lieu of a love gift, they have asked that a donation may be made in their honor for a Umoja School Sponsorship. Umoja serves orphans and vulnerable children in Western Kenya. John visited the Umoja Project in 2012 and this ministry has remained close in his heart ever since. This School Sponsorship would cover the cost for over 200 Kenyan children, including food, uniforms, special needs and stipends. If you would like to donate to this worthy and important ministry in their honor, please make your check payable to Tab with "in honor of John Gable" in the memo line and drop it off at Tab or donate on line at tabpres.org/giving under "UMOJA" fund, noting "in honor of John Gable" in the memo space. Baskets will also be made available at church for these donations, as well as cards and letters to John and Kristin, on July 30th and August 6th.

Pastoral Reflection

of Rev. L. John Gable

Dear Friends,

“Every pastor is an interim pastor.”

That rather stark reminder is the very first sentence in the preface William Vanderbloemen writes in his book titled Next. Whether one serves a church for 15 or 50 years, there was a “before” and there will be an “after.” The better one prepares, and the better they help the congregation they serve prepare for that inevitability, the better it will be for everyone.

During the past several months, since I sent the letter announcing my retirement, I have been preparing myself, and hopefully you, for the day when I will no longer be called your pastor. And how have I done that?

In part, I’ve been planning for it for years. Personally, Kris and I have talked about our plans “post-ministry” and waited for the right time. We believe that time is now. Professionally, I began planning and preparing about five years ago when I laid out, in broad brushstrokes, the themes I wanted to preach on. With the Session and staff and various committees of the church I have helped to identify programs and projects I wanted to set in order before my departure. Who would have thought that tuck-pointing a building would make the bucket list?

As the time has drawn nearer I have been culling my office of books and materials I have used as tools of my trade for decades. A couple of weeks ago I asked Sean to carry 40 years-worth of hardcopies of my sermons to the dumpster! I have been sorting through my bookshelves, taking home those I know I want to keep, and giving others away. These have been my friends throughout my ministry, so I want them to go to a good home! I have been sorting through papers and file folders. Tossing most, organizing the rest for whoever may want or need them in the future.

I have been reflecting and reminiscing about my life and ministry. I am just completing a short sermon series on “What the Church Has Taught Me” and soon will begin a series on the wonderfully unique quality of Tab. This time of reflection has been beneficial for me, and I hope for you as well, as I am being reminded of how blessed I have been, and continue to be.

And, of course, I am taking time to share conversations and meals with many I call friend. The Presbytery has very clear guidelines as to what a pastor can and cannot do after they leave a congregation, i.e. I can’t do anything that even hints of still being your pastor. But it also clearly states, “this policy does not affect or require termination of friendships with individuals in the congregation.”

There are times when I catch myself thinking, “I will really miss this!”, and other times when I think “And this, not so much!”, but I have loved ministry and the privilege of serving as your pastor.

Having said that, I am reminded “every pastor is an interim pastor.” So, while I am grateful in the present for the past, I also look forward to the future, yours and ours, with great hope, knowing that God is faithful still.

I look forward to being with you in worship.

—John

Obituary

Jeffrey L. Ellis was born on April 18, 1964, in Indianapolis, Indiana, to Sharon Perkins Ellis Nelson and Richard “Boo” Ellis. He entered this world five minutes after his brother, Gregory.

Jeffrey, who was affectionately known as Twin, El, El-Dog, and Jeff, was kind, compassionate, fun-loving and reserved. He was not much for meaningless conversations or interactions. He was not flashy or braggadocious but mellow and laid-back. He was loyal and courageous, courageous because he persevered through the obstacles that came his way. He was content with spending time alone watching old westerns, sports and cheering for the Indianapolis Colts. The one sport Jeffrey mastered was basketball and played on the teams for both Shortridge and John Marshall High Schools.

Jeffrey was very passionate and protective of his family. There are many fond memories of family gatherings, from eating James Perkins’ (maternal grandfather) fried chicken every Sunday; sitting around laughing and joking, dancing, enjoying delicious home-cooked meals, watching movies, traveling, attending concerts and sporting events together, as well as Turn-Up Thursdays, all of which were all done with immense joy and love. Jeffrey would say “I love you more” and his actions demonstrated just that.

Jeffrey was baptized along with his twin at Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church, his paternal grandmother’s church, during his sophomore year of high school. He also sang in the youth choir there. He continued to serve God by working at Tabernacle Presbyterian Church (“Tab”) for 27 years. He took immense pride in being the custodian at Tab where he felt appreciated and valued as a caring and considerate man.

Jeffrey departed this life on June 1, 2023. He was preceded in death by his father, Richard “boo” Ellis, his paternal and maternal grandparents, and his twin brother, Gregory Ellis.

His memory will be cherished by his mother, Sharon Nelson; daughters, Brooklyn Ellis and Chelsea Ellis; grandchild, Zaria Ellis; sister, Janice Johnson (Oscar); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and a loving family at Tab.

Humbly Submitted.....The Family

The family of Jeff Ellis would like to express their gratitude and appreciation for the support, encouragement, and many acts of kindness offered to them by the Tab family during their time of grief. Over the past weeks, they have shared many words of thanksgiving and hope, including that they always knew Jeff loved Tab and now understand even more how much the Tab family loved Jeff. As one family member said, “Jeff wasn’t just your employee and Tab wasn’t just where he worked. You all were family to each other. I could tell that as soon as I walked in this building. So much love here.”

Jeff’s mother, Sharon, said that she has been greatly comforted by the “flood of cards and notes from the Tab family sharing their stories and memories of Jeff.”

Most assuredly, Jeff was truly beloved by his family, his ministry colleagues, the Tab family and this community. Our collective grief is deep and he will be forever missed by many. To honor Jeff and his family, we would like to share the lovely obituary that was prepared in his memory. In addition, his funeral service is available for viewing online on Tab’s YouTube channel ‘TabIndy.’

Please continue to pray for Jeff’s family, especially his mother, Sharon Nelson, daughters Brooklyn and Chelsea Ellis, as well as the extended family – including his aunt, Patty Pate, and cousin Deidre “Dee Dee” Shanklin, who continue to assist with weddings and funerals at Tab.

At the family’s request, memorial contributions honoring Jeff may be directed to “TAB COMMUNITY MINISTRIES” and will be used to assist neighbors in this 34th & Central neighborhood where Jeff spent his entire life. †

Open Door Ministry Café

One-Year Anniversary Celebration Recap

by Rev. Terri Thorn

On May 19th, 2022 the Open

Door soup kitchen relaunched as the Open Door Ministry Café for the purpose of: *Feeding bodies and souls by providing a safe place with good food and even better conversation for the sake authentic relationship building that fosters Greater Faith, Deeper Relationships and Stronger Community.

On Friday, June 2, we celebrated the anniversary of operating under the new ministry model in which each day has a focus that aligns with Tab's Vision pillars:

- Greater Faith | spiritual well-being
- Deeper Relationships | personal well-being
- Stronger Community | emotional well-being through community partnerships

In addition, the restaurant-style ministry fosters a sense of belonging and uplifts dignity while providing opportunities for sharing and connecting with others. A video from the celebration can be found on Tab's YouTube site: insert link

The celebration included a meal of the most popular entrée choice of the past year (pork tenderloin sandwich!), music provided by Val Phelps and Graham Helft, a review of significant statistics and milestones, and plenty of energy, enthusiasm and yummy cake. Milestones of the past year include:

Attendance average in the summer was 60-70 people each day. Winter attendance dropped to around 55, and while there was a major snowstorm on January 25th, we did not close and served more than 30 neighbors in the middle of it. This spring, we are serving about 70 people, including several families with children.

What ODC Volunteers are saying:

- Love interacting with our guests.
- Volunteering gives me hope, joy and a sense of purpose.
- Answer to long-time prayer; being with friends, seeing Christ in authentic ways in people we serve.
- It has been a wonderful year and a pleasure to serve the community.
- I love seeing our guests and volunteers every Friday. Such a heart-warming time!

For more information about volunteering at the Open Door Ministry Café, contact Pastor Terri or one of the team leaders: Carol Newell, Peg Strodbeck, Sue White, or Linda Fledderjohn.

Heartfelt devotionals are offered every Monday and a blessing table was available every Wednesday that we were open. At least five different community partners visited regularly on Fridays throughout the year.

The average number of volunteers on a given day is 10-12, and our directory of volunteers includes more than 40 people – many of whom are not Tab members.

Food waste is negligible. Minimal leftovers are sent home with neighbors or delivered to other community partners including: Coburn Place, Horizon House or to a local senior apartments where one of the regular attendees lives.

Just over $5,000 was collected in our “donations” box available for neighbors to contribute, as they are able.

Written prayer requests from the neighbors average about a dozen per week – not counting those said at the meals and with volunteers.

Although the number of people impacted by the Open Door Ministry Café is impossible to know, on the day of celebration, we inquired: “What does the Open Door Café mean to you?”

You will see their responses to the right here— which serve as evidence that the purpose is being served and lives are touched by Christ’s presence in the ministry. ✝
