A Christmas Message

FROM TAB'S INTERIM PASTOR

Dear Friends,

The church year invites us to think about time differently. Instead of being built around calendar months, lunar cycles, or the rhythm of educational institutions, the church year is based on the major events in the life of Jesus. Experiencing time this way invites us as disciples to set the internal clock of our lives according to the compassion, love, and faithful imagination exhibited by Jesus as described in the Gospels. In this way of marking time, the first Sunday of Advent (December 1, 2024) is New Year's Day!

A new church year always begins with a season of waiting—remembering that God's people waited for a long time for the promised Messiah to appear. Advent is also a reminder that God's plans for creation and for our lives unfold according to God's time frame and not ours.

I hope that you—and those with whom you share this season—will find time in the midst of busyness to experience the quiet and anticipation that come with waiting. As we prepare to celebrate afresh God's gift of Jesus, whom we embrace as our Messiah, deliverer, and agent of change for our lives and world, we have the opportunity to refocus our lives in ways that make us better people and bring glory to God.

One of my favorite poems of the Advent season is by Presbyterian poet Ann Weems:

*When God is ready
God will come
even to a godforsaken place like a stable in Bethlehem.*

*Watch... for you know not when
God comes.*

*Watch, that you might be found whenever wherever
God comes!*

Let us make ourselves ready with joy and hope!

Lighting Advent Candles at Home:

A FAMILY TRADITION OF WAITING AND HOPE

Disciples of Jesus know and celebrate Advent as a time of waiting and preparation for Christmas—the celebration of Jesus’ birth. The word Advent means “coming.”

Advent observance dates back to the early Church. In 567 CE, the Council of Tours, a gathering of church leaders, established Advent as a time of fasting leading up to Christmas Day. Over time, the season of Advent has varied in length, ranging from three to seven weeks. In more recent centuries, the familiar four-week observance became the standard.

The Advent wreath originated in the Middle Ages in Germany or France. The circle of the wreath represents the unending love of God, and the evergreen branches symbolize eternal life

One of the loveliest Advent traditions is the lighting of Advent candles at home. Households prepare for Christmas with a weekly ceremony that includes scripture, prayer, and the lighting of candles (singing carols is optional) to signal the approach of Jesus’ birth. Four candles, one for each week of the Advent season, are lit during these brief ceremonies. A fifth candle, the Christ candle, is lit on Christmas Eve or Day.

How an Advent Ceremony Works

On the first Sunday of Advent, during a simple service of worship, one of the candles is lit as a reminder for the household to prepare for the birth of Jesus. Each Sunday through Advent, another candle is lit until all four are burning, signaling that Jesus’ birth is near. On Christmas Eve or Day, the fifth candle is lit to celebrate Jesus’ arrival!

Set aside a few minutes each week for the household to gather in Advent worship. This time together, and the growing glow of the Advent candles, is a meaningful way to experience God’s great love through Jesus, the light of the world.

The simple candle-lighting liturgies that follow can be used as is or enhanced with your own ideas and household traditions. Be sure to involve everyone in the services. They are designed for a child, and the child in all of us, to experience afresh the awe and wonder of God becoming flesh and dwelling among us.

The First Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 1: THE CANDLE OF HOPE

Introduction: Someone says...

We light the first Advent candle to start this special season. Jesus is on the way; a reminder of the abundance of God’s generosity towards us. Through the generous gift of Jesus, we dare to hope that all the world will become as God wants and intends it to be!

Scripture: Someone reads...

Scripture says – Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God... Psalm 146:5

The Candle: As the first candle of Advent is lit, someone says...

A single flame announces that our time of Advent waiting has begun. As we anticipate God’s good gift, may our hope flow onto all around us!

Prayer: Someone says...

Let us pray: “Hopeful God, help us to get ready for Jesus; making room in our lives and the entire world for all the hope he brings us from you. Amen!”

Binding Generations:

THE GIFT OF FAMILY TRADITIONS AT CHRISTMAS

by Jennifer Wirt, Director of Children's Ministries

For me, the best thing about the Advent/Christmas season (besides the obvious hope and joy represented by the birth of Christ and the anticipation of His eventual return) is the many traditions we share in my family. I'm a strong believer in the importance of family traditions as a way to connect each generation with the next.

For instance, our family Christmas tree has never been one you'd see on a magazine cover. Instead, it's adorned with ornaments like my husband's Purdue graduation tassel, a hideous Styrofoam ball with Q-tips randomly inserted, a painted wooden Santa with huge, soulless black eyes and a lurid red mouth, and various other lovingly made decorations from our children over the years—and even a few from my childhood and my husband's. Nowadays, there are also ornaments from our grandchildren, and we treasure all of these special artifacts deeply.

We also display a beautiful porcelain nativity set made by my mother, placed in a central spot of honor. The grandchildren help me put out my 60 or so Santa figurines. We play Charades on Christmas Eve and have exploding Christmas crackers from England, filled with tissue paper crowns, cheap little toys, and bad jokes during Christmas dinner.

We treasure these traditions, along with many others, because they not only bind our Christmases together, but they bind us together through our memories, shared history, and eagerness to fold the next generation into our family and lives.

The Second Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 8: THE CANDLE OF PEACE

The Candle: As the first and second candles of Advent are lit, someone says...

Two candles demonstrate how easily God's generosity spreads, and how quickly the days of Advent fly! We are invited to prepare for the coming birth of Jesus, by putting peace into practice.

Prayer: Someone says...

Let us pray: Gracious God, help us to imitate your generosity toward us, as we share peace with others; for Jesus is coming, and we want to be ready for him. Amen!

CHRISTMAS JOY OFFERING | December 22

Each year during Advent and Christmas, we celebrate and support the leaders of the church—past, present, and future. The Christmas Joy Offering honors God’s gift of Jesus by providing vital assistance to current and retired church workers in need, while also supporting the education of future leaders at Presbyterian-related schools and colleges serving communities of color. The Annual Christmas Joy Offering will be collected during worship on Sunday, December 22, or you can give online at tabpres.org/Giving. Your generous contribution helps families of church workers and supports education through racial ethnic schools and colleges. Special envelopes will be available on Sunday for your convenience.

2024 YEAR-END CONTRIBUTIONS

Tuesday, December 31, is the final day Tab is able to physically receive contributions in the Finance Office for credit to your 2024 giving statement. Checks dated, postmarked, and sent via the U.S. Mail on or before December 31 will be credited as 2024 giving, even if received in 2025. Online giving must have a December 31 processing date for credit in 2024. All of the above is in accordance with IRS rules and regulations. Those interested in donating securities should contact Kristine Green at extension 111 in the Finance Office well in advance of year-end.

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTIONS (QCD)

When planning your IRA withdrawal strategy, you may want to consider making charitable donations through a QCD. A QCD is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. QCDs can be counted toward satisfying your required minimum distributions (RMDs) for the year, as long as certain rules are met. In addition to the benefits of giving to a charity, a QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. Keeping your taxable income lower may reduce the impact to certain tax credits and deductions, including Social Security and Medicare. See your tax professional for full details.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Join incoming President of the Indiana Psychological Association and newly elected Tab Elder, Dr. Shannon Woller, for “Nurturing the Heart Within: Discovering Self-Compassion through God’s Love”. This 8-week Spiritual Growth & Development class series, begins January 5, at 9am in the Parlor. Details coming soon!

Third Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 15: THE CANDLE OF JOY

Introduction: Someone says...

We light a third Advent candle because Jesus’ birth will happen very soon! Like water spilling from a great waterfall, the coming of Jesus represents God’s joy flowing over all the world. It is almost time. Let us be ready!

Scripture: Someone reads...

Scripture says – For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Isaiah 55:12

The Candle: As the third candle of Advent is lit, someone says...

Three bright flames tell us that our joy is nearly complete! This generous gift changes our lives and changes the world. Now is our time to be ready.

Prayer: Someone says...

Let us pray: Joyful God, you are so generous with us. Guide us, now, as we get ourselves ready for Jesus’ birth. Help us to open our hearts, so that you can fill them with all your good gifts – hope, peace, love, and joy! Amen.

Open Door Café:

A PLACE OF WELCOME & HOPE

by Janaé Woodson, Coordinator of Community Ministries

Open Door Café is more than just a place—it's the heartbeat of God's love in our community, dedicated to nourishing both body and spirit. Volunteers don't just serve food; they offer their hearts, sharing time, prayers, and encouragement with neighbors who long for connection and hope. Through Open Door, a safe and sacred space has blossomed where people can feel supported, seen, and loved—a place to rest from life's storms and find strength to face tomorrow.

Open Door is a space of acceptance, free from judgment. It's a place where everyone can be real, where thoughts are shared without fear, and where compassion flows freely. Here, no one is "greater than" or "less than"; volunteers and neighbors are equals—brothers and sisters who offer each other strength, prayer, and a helping hand.

Guided by Tab's mission of "Greater Faith, Deeper Relationships, Stronger Community," the staff and volunteers at Open Door are building something eternal. They're not just creating memories but planting seeds of hope and love that will endure long after the meals and moments are shared. People may not always remember what we do, but our prayer is that they remember how we made them feel—loved, valued, and held in God's embrace.

We pray that every neighbor who comes through Open Door sees a reflection of God's unyielding love. We want them to know that, as Jeremiah 29:11-13 reminds us, God's plans are filled with hope and promise:

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart."

Our deepest prayer is that our neighbors leave Open Door not only with full stomachs but with fuller hearts—assured that God sees them, loves them, and holds a purpose for their lives as bright as His promise.

Fourth Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 22: THE CANDLE OF LOVE

Introduction: Someone says...

We light a fourth Advent candle because Jesus is on the way. His coming into our lives and world is a sign of God's generous love. God's love is the foundation of our lives, and the foundation of everything we do in Jesus' name!

Scripture: Someone reads...

Scripture says – This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. John 15:12

The Candle: As the fourth candle of Advent is lit, someone says...

Four candles reveal how deeply in Advent we have already traveled! One of the most important ways we prepare for Jesus is by generously loving others. How are we doing? Are we ready yet?

Prayer: Someone says...

Let us pray: Loving God, help us to love others as much as you love us; for Jesus is soon to come, and we want to be ready. We're going to help him change the world...for you! Amen!

Christmas Eve or Day

JESUS IS BORN!: THE CANDLE OF LIGHT

Introduction: Someone says...

We light all the candles on the Advent wreath to announce that Baby Jesus is born! All our waiting is over, and in the light of five candles, our excitement can begin!

Scripture: Someone reads...

Scripture says – And Mary gave birth to her firstborn son and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. Luke 2:7

The Candle: As the Christ candle is lit, someone says...

The glow of the fifth candle announces that the light of the world has arrived! Welcome, Baby Jesus. We're glad you are born. We run now to the manger, to help keep you warm!

Prayer: Someone says...

Let us pray: Thank you God for sending Jesus to us. He lights up the whole world with your love. Help us to love him, and to share his light and love generously, so that every person here in Indianapolis (or whatever your home), and all around the world can feel it too. Amen!

Special Letter

FROM REV. TERRI THORN

Dearest Friends,

As Christmas rapidly approaches, I'm increasingly aware that, for the first time in nearly 20 years, I'll celebrate Christmas without pastoral obligations. My only "job" this year will be to love and enjoy my family and friends. I'm still wrapping my head around the fact that I'll have the chance to attend family gatherings, watch Hallmark movies, cheer at Purdue basketball games, and socialize with friends—without scheduling around committee meetings or adhering to the 9pm Saturday night wind-down I need to be ready for Sunday morning worship.

As I reflect, I feel a mix of gratitude for this rare opportunity and an unsettledness about being away from ministry for two months. Already, I sense a growing sadness that I won't be with the Tab community during the Advent season. I'll miss our beloved traditions, the beauty of our worship services, and the joy of Passing the Peace with the children each Sunday. I'll miss fellowship with you all and with our neighbors throughout the week. I'll even miss the weekly rhythms... (maybe even some of the meetings—though, maybe not!)

Still, I look forward to this time away to pursue what, as someone put it, will "make my heart sing with joy!" In December, that will include relaxing with family, enjoying music performances, and visiting long-time friends. January, however, will be quieter, slower, and more solitary—a time for rest, reflection, intentional prayer, and spiritual direction. My hope is that this Sabbath time will bring me closer to God and offer renewal and restoration for my soul.

To fully embrace this season with my family and create space for deep conversation with God, I will disconnect from my responsibilities at Tab and from fellowship with all of you, as well as our neighbors and community partners. This may be the most challenging part of my Sabbath leave, but it is also the most necessary to honor the gift I've been given. I won't check emails or voicemails and will remove myself from Tab-related social media. Please know this is not a reflection of my heart, but a step toward becoming healthier physically, mentally, and spiritually.

I will miss my ministry at Tab and all of you very much. I pray that this season is a blessed one for all of us, and I look forward to being together again in February 2025.

With Love,

Terri
